DOUBLE TROUBLE SAT., OCTOBER 14, 2017, 8 P.M.

The WSO's season opener will explore the many meanings of "double," with pairings ranging from sublime to silly. Current Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra Cellist Adam Liu and former PSO violinist Roy Sonne will perform the first movement of Brahms' Double Concerto. Bartok's Concerto for Orchestra (Second Movement) featuring pairs of soloists, "Dueling Sopranos" from Mozart's The Impresario, and some "Dueling Fiddles," for good measure.

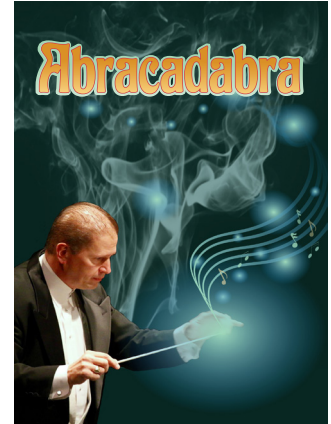

HO, HO, HO WITH THE WSO SAT., DECEMBER 2, 2017 8 P.M. SUN., DECEMBER 3, 2017 3 P.M.

Give your friends and family the gift of music - bring them to join us at the WSO's annual holiday concert. The All-Star High School Choir helps us get back to basics this year as we unwrap a host of traditional carols that will be familiar to all. Young talent will also be highlighted by a sampling of character dances from Tchaikovsky's Nutcracker.

MUSIC TO THE RESCUE SUN., FEBRUARY 18, 2018, 3 P.M.

The WSO will make a heroic effort to whisk you away from the winter doldrums with inspiring selections from Rossini's "William Tell Overture" and Rimsky-Korsakov's Scheherazade, as well as Tchaikovsky's Marche Slav and Wagner's "Siegfried's Funeral March" from Götterdämmerung. Also responding to the call will be the rousing John Williams pieces "Superman" and "Raiders March."

ABRACADABRA SATURDAY, MAY 5, 2018, 8 P.M.

Maestro Yugo will trade in his baton for a wand as we conjure up a magical end to another enthralling season. Enchantment will abound with classics, including the Overture to Mozart's Magic Flute, "Neptune, the Mystic" from Holst's The Planets, and Dukas' "Sorcerer's Apprentice." We'll have some fun with magicians Doc Dixon and Howard Mincone, hear music from the Harry Potter films, and we will introduce the Young Artist Competition Winner.
