

DREAMSCAPES Art Contest

In February, the Washington Symphony Orchestra will present "Dreamscapes," a concert all about dreams and how music can be used to show what a dream is like. The WSO is inviting all children in grades K through 6 to draw a picture with the theme "My Dream." Here are some of the names of the pieces of music that will be played in February that you can listen to for inspiration while you work on your entry:

- "Clair de Lune" - Claude Debussy
- "Clouds" from Roman Sketches, Op.7 - Charles Tomlinson Griffes
- "Waltz" from Sleeping Beauty - Peter Illich Tchaikovsky
- "Midsummer's Night Dream" - Felix Mendelssohn

RULES:

1. Only 2-dimensional art is accepted.
2. Any medium can be used, including one or more of the following: crayons, markers, colored pencils, watercolor, tempera, acrylic.
3. Work directly on heavy white paper or poster board.
4. Artwork must not exceed 11" x 17."
5. Please do not write your name on the front of the artwork--attach the form (see below) to the back.
6. Artwork is entered at your own risk. All possible care will be taken to secure work. However, the WSO is not responsible for damage or loss to any entry.

One winner will be chosen by a WSO panel of judges at the end of the February 13 concert. Artwork will be on display at the February 13 concert. Another winner will be chosen by online voting the week after the concert. Both winners will receive a gift card.

Entrants need not be from Washington County. Artwork must be received by the WSO by Wednesday, February 10 at 5 p.m. Entries can be hand-delivered or mailed to the WSO office at 11 South College Street, Washington, PA 15301. Questions? Call 724-223-9796 and leave a message or email adam.shaffer@washsym.org.
