

"Music to the Rescue" Art Contest

On February 18, the Washington Symphony Orchestra will present "Music to the Rescue," a concert featuring all kinds of heroic and triumphant themes. The WSO is inviting all children in grades K through 6 to think about their heroes and to draw a picture of one or more of them. The hero or heroes in the picture can be famous, imaginary, or people you know in real life—they do not have to be music-related in any way.

RULES:

1. Only 2-dimensional art is accepted.
2. Any medium can be used, including one or more of the following: crayons, markers, colored pencils, watercolor, tempera, acrylic.
3. Work directly on heavy white paper or poster board.
4. Artwork must not exceed 11" x 17."
5. Please do not write your name on the front of the artwork--attach the form (see below) to the back.
6. Artwork is entered at your own risk. All possible care will be taken to secure work. However, the WSO is not responsible for damage or loss to any entry.

One winner will be chosen by a WSO panel of judges at the end of the February 18 concert. Artwork will be on display at the February 18 concert. Another winner will be chosen by online voting the week after the concert. Both winners will receive a gift card.

All students in grades K through 6 may enter. Artwork must be received by the WSO by Friday, February 16 at 5 p.m. Entries should be mailed to the Washington Symphony Orchestra, PO BOX 178, Washington, PA 15301. Entries can also be hand delivered to the office in Washington by calling 724-689-9586 to schedule a time. No entries will be accepted the day of the concert. Questions? Call 724-223-9796 and leave a message or email info@washsym.org.
